ALMA MATER

Hail to thee, Daingerfield

With your colors high

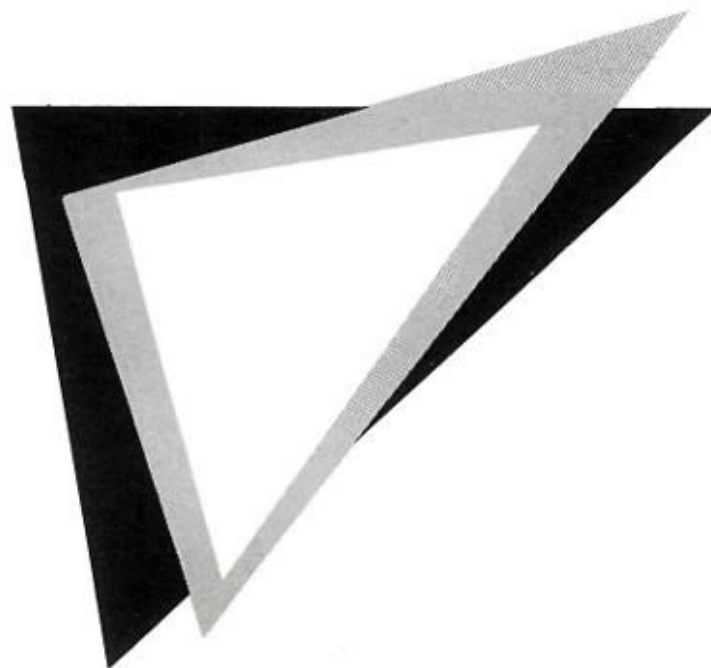

Within our hearts are memories,

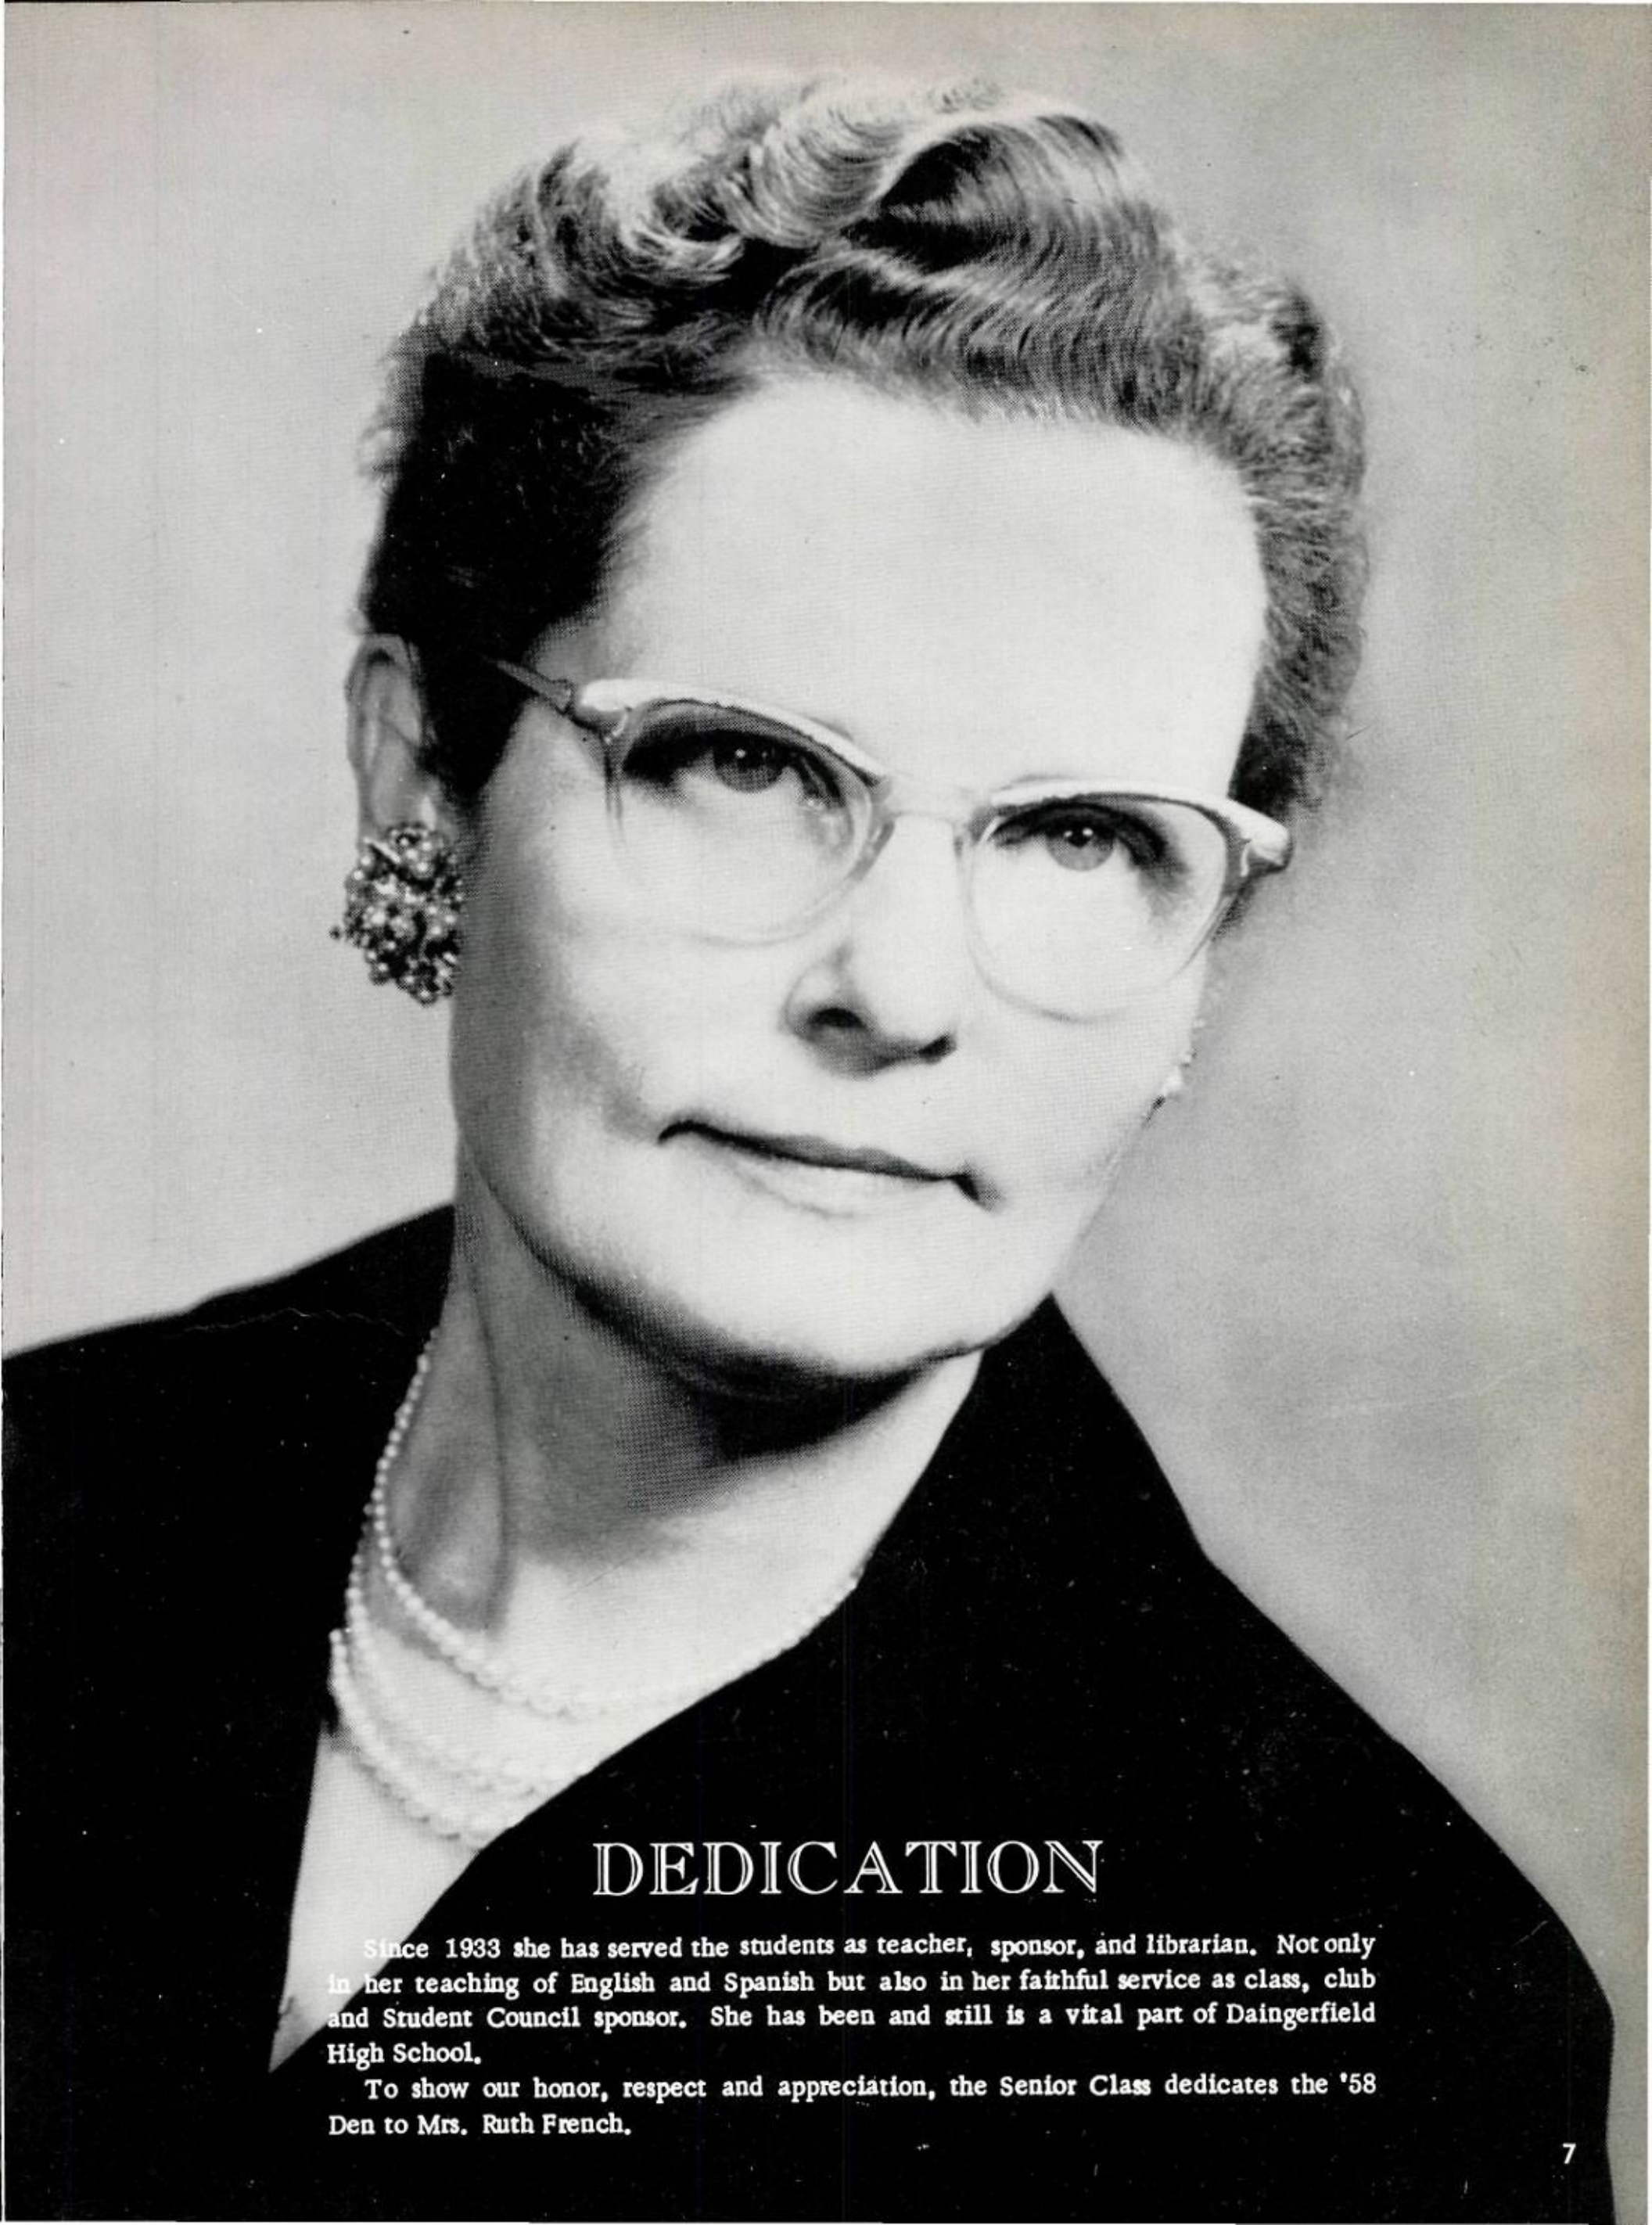

Of happy days gone by.

And with colors waving proudly up above.

We'll look to thee for guidance

With loyalty and love.

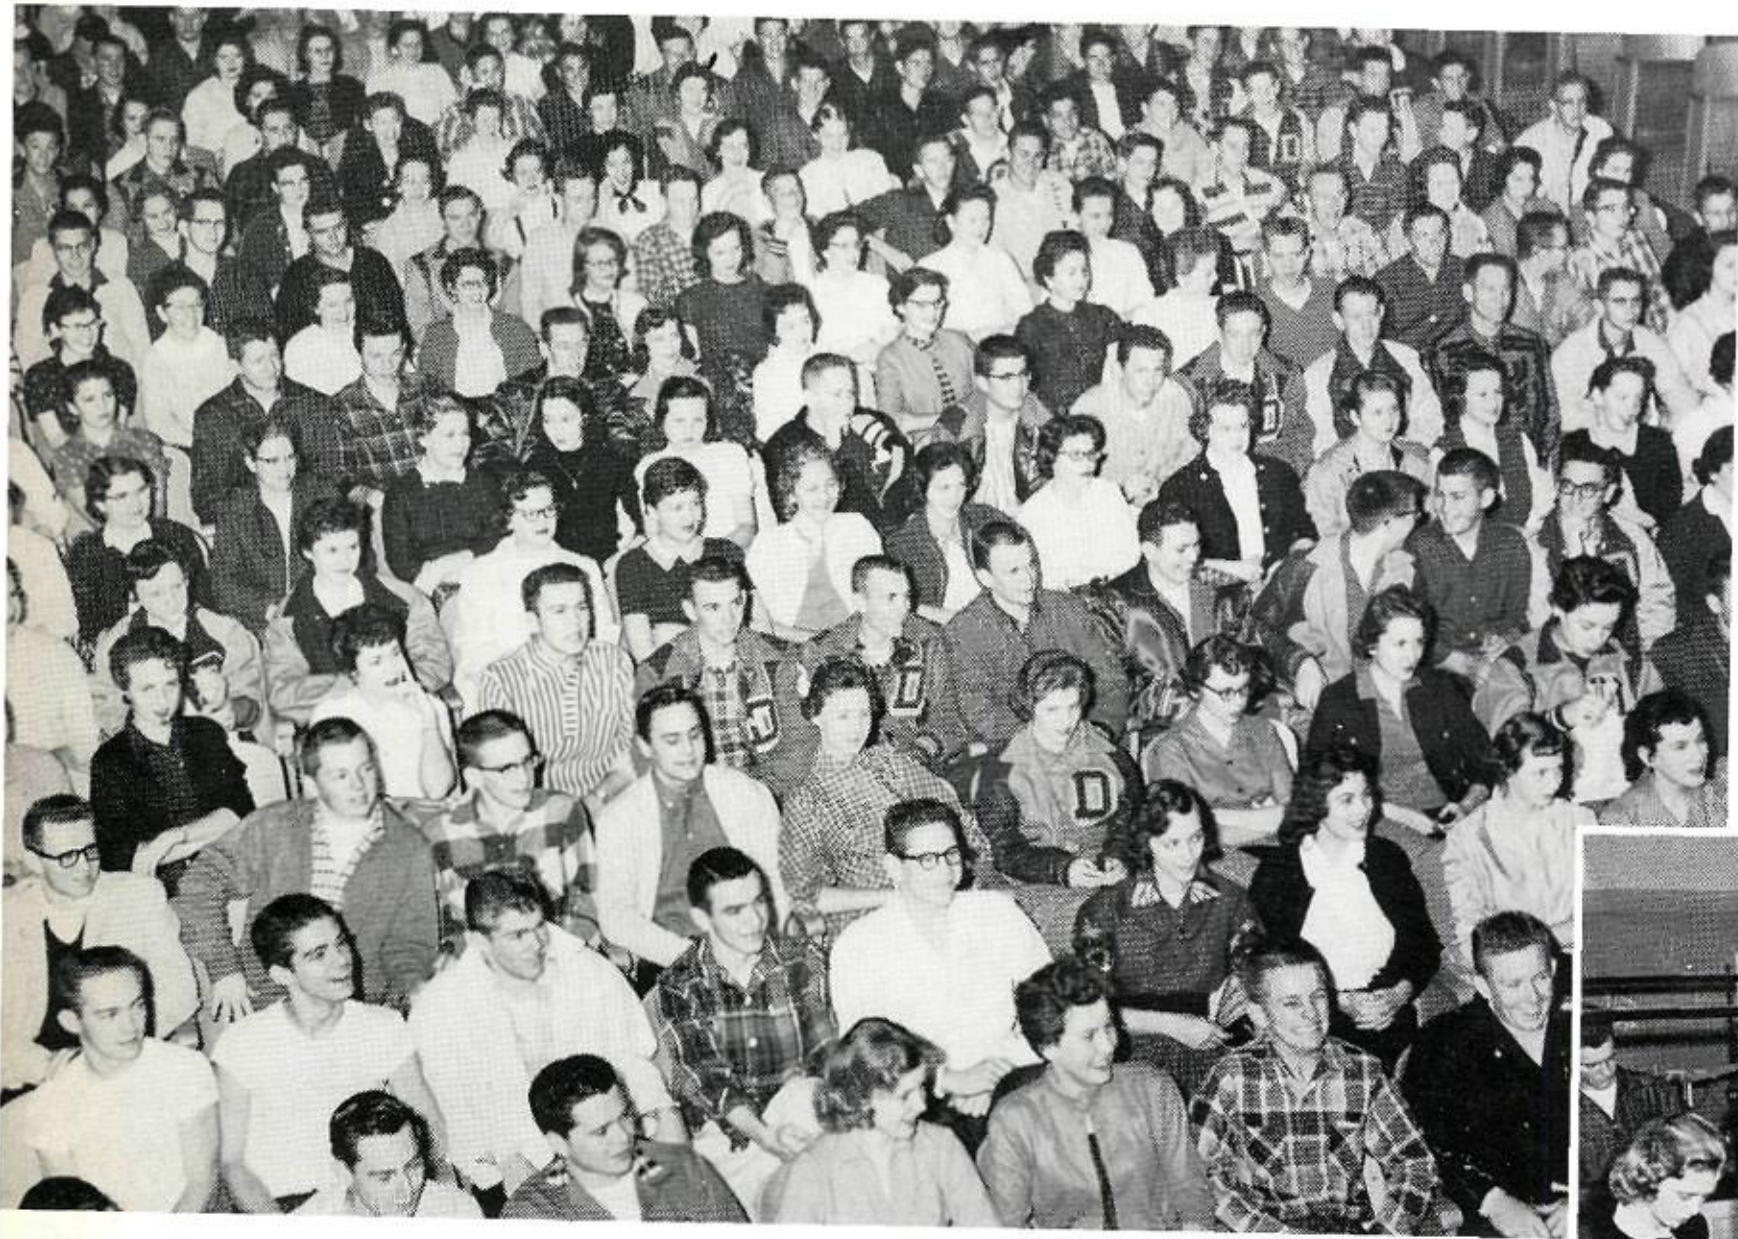

DEDICATION

Since 1933 she has served the students as teacher, sponsor, and librarian. Not only in her teaching of English and Spanish but also in her faithful service as class, club and Student Council sponsor. She has been and still is a vital part of Daingerfield High School.

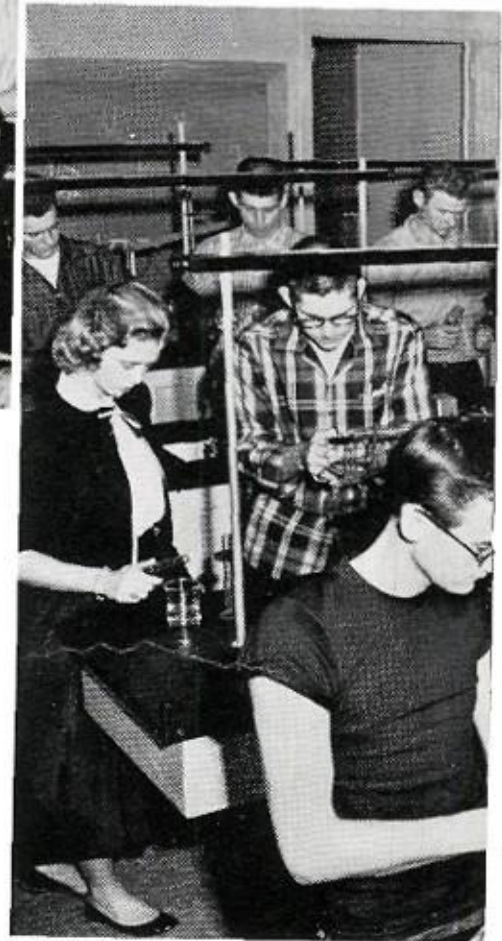

To show our honor, respect and appreciation, the Senior Class dedicates the '58 Den to Mrs. Ruth French.

THROUGH THE DAY

DHS students gather in the auditorium every Tuesday for assembly at 10:30 A.M.

Life begins at 8:15 A.M. as students convene to await the 8:30 bell.

AT D.H.S.

During the noon hours, hungry students await their turn in the cafeteria.

With the beginning of class - daily routine is underway.

After the 3:30 bell rings, most of our students are homeward bound.

JUNIOR-SENIOR

The theme of the annual Junior-Senior Banquet, "Fairyland Fantasia," provided an atmosphere of gaiety. The Wishing Well lent an air of charm to the night's festivities. Michael

BANQUET AND PROM

The 1957-58 basketball season saw the Tiger squad win second place in District 15 AA, with Danny Johnson as high-point player. As a team, the Tigers will lose four starters, Charles Ray, Danny Johnson, Mike Crossland, and Ted Awtry. James Gable will be the only starter to return next season.

Tigers defeat Pewitt Brahmas in Daingerfield's Iron Belt Tournament.

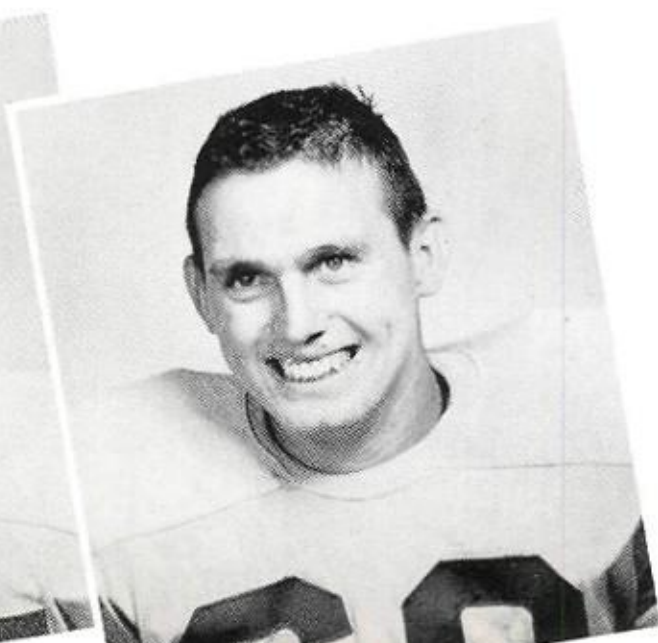

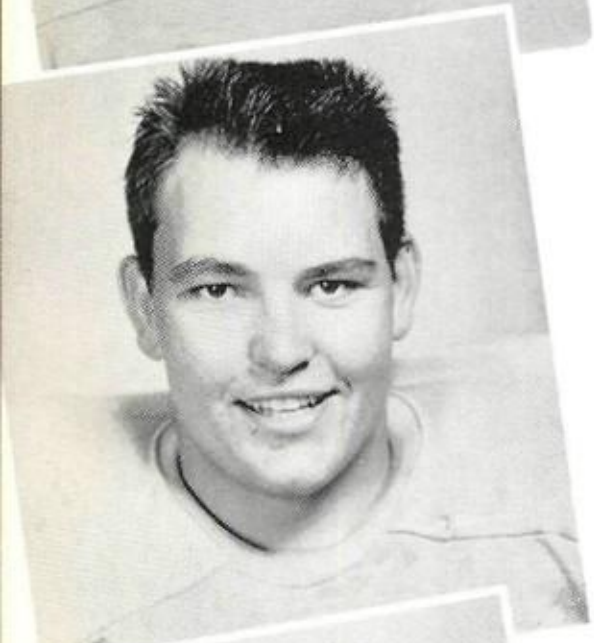

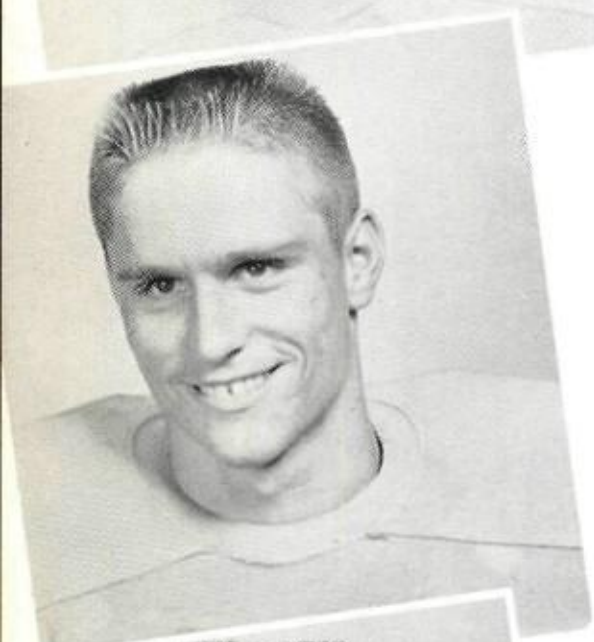

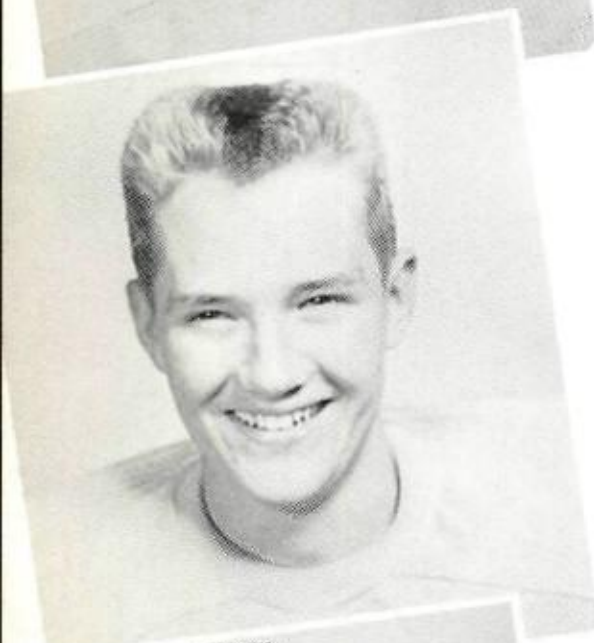

SUE REIGNS AS BASKETBALL BELLE

Sue Crossland, the 1958 Basketball Belle, was presented with a bouquet of red carnations by Coach McDaniels. This was the first time in the history of DHS for the team to name a girl to this honor. Escorting Sue was Charles Ray. The favorites and their escorts were Susan Stark and James Gable, Priscilla Noga and Danny Johnson, Sue Owens and Ted Awtry, June Wallace and Mike Crossland. Other members of the team formed the background.

Facing nothing but hard work and determination our fighting Tigers showed gradual improvement throughout the season. The team was composed of six seniors, ten juniors, and twelve sophomores. Though the game scores don't indicate a successful season we feel much was accomplished by the Tiger's fighting spirit and determination to play clean football.
